

America 250

Programs

Willie Nelson in Story & Songs

6:00-7:30pm

New England based singer/songwriter Matt York will share stories about the life and career of country music icon Willie Nelson. Matt York is the author of The Words and Wisdom of Willie Nelson. Copies of his book will be available for purchase at the event.

Wed.
4/29

From Hoofbeats to Cruisers: Early Law Enforcement in Rhode Island

6:30pm

Author and historian Jim Ignasher will discuss the origins of modern policing in Rhode Island. Foot beats, call boxes, long hours, low pay, and political interference were all part of an early police officer's job. Yet there were those willing to do it.

Wed.
5/20

The Company Bees

Presented by the Greenville Library Heritage Committee

10:00 am

The Company Bees are a duo out of Providence, RI paying tribute to the era of WWII through song and story. Step back in time with the biggest hits of the 1940s performed live.

Sat.
6/6

These events are part of the Greenville Public Library's program series celebrating the 250th anniversary of the founding of America.

The Web they Wove

6:00pm

Mon.
7/20

Underpinning the sensationalism of battle reports & broadsides is the often silent steadiness of women's work with textiles. The choices they made every day about fashion and fabric consumption & creation drove the course of Revolution just as determinedly as any congress.
